8. Gatorade Grape Perform G2 02 Perform Thirst Quencher Instant Powder Drink 19.4oz

This hydrating formula is the refreshing elixir that revitalizes and rejuvenates after a tiresome workout session. G2 works with the same mechanism as Gatorade to quench your thirst. The calories are way lesser, half as much than that of the original G Sports Drink. This drink contains essential electrolytes such as sodium and potassium that replace the critical quantities lost when you sweat thus retaining the fluid balance in your body for proper muscle functioning. The grape flavor is delicious and gives a great tangy taste. The carbohydrates that fuel the muscles is also essential for intense workouts which are also present in this drink. The per serving nutritional value is 160 mg sodium, 45 mg potassium, and 8 grams carbs giving a total of 35 calories. Many athletes and trainers take this drink in the right quantities to enhance their performance for long bouts of workout. The canister with a capacity of 551 grams makes six gallons of the drink. This is a great way of staying energized all day without compromising on the hydration of the body and the functioning of the mind. Sometimes it is necessary to give that extra power to the body, which G2 does effectively.
